

GLASSCRAFT EMERGING ARTIST AWARD

WHAT IS THE GLASSCRAFT EMERGING ARTIST AWARD?

The Glasscraft Emerging Artist Award will be awarded to up and coming flameworking artists who have demonstrated outstanding skill and who have contributed to the lampworking community through technical and artistic innovation. The award is given to twelve lampworking artists a year, one of which will become the Glasscraft Emerging Artist.

HOW CAN I QUALIFY FOR THIS AWARD?

Please join us by participating in the Glasscraft Emerging Artists Award. Just send in your artist profile (300-400 words), high resolution digital photos of your work, contact information and photographer's name on cd to Glasscraft Emerging Artists Award, c/o The Flow, PO Box 125, Marietta, TX 75566.

ANDREW BROWN

After graduating from the Savannah College of Art Design in 1998, with a BFA in Illustration, Andrew Brown moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico and co-founded KBGlassworks.

Andrew is well known for his innovative approach to contemporary flameworking. While combining classic cold working techniques with non-traditional flameworking Andrew specializes in unique wearable art. Most recently he has begun a series of collectable marbles and paperweights - featuring electroforming and extensive cold working.

Along with being in many private collections, and galleries, Andrew was the winner of the 2002 Albuquerque Flame Off in the bead category.

He currently resides in Kansas City where he independently works to push & test the limits of what this medium has to offer.
